

“Embracing the Ministers’ Wife and Minister’s Widow, Expanding the Vision and Cementing the Foundation”

Jannie M. Daniels – Candidate for President - 2010

Jannie M. Daniels resides at 4664 Hawthorne Street, Philadelphia, PA with her husband of 40 years, Joseph. She is a product of Eastern University in St. Davids, PA and Temple University’s Fox School of Business in Philadelphia, PA.

An active member of the Emanuel Institutional Baptist Church where her husband Joseph serves as the Senior Pastor, Jannie Daniels has served in many areas including teaching in Emanuel’s Christian School of Education; her favorite class is “Flirting with the Devil”. She is the proud mother of three children, three grandsons and one great-granddaughter, Destiny Marie.

Jannie is a respected Human Resources professional with over 20 years of experience, providing leadership and strategic direction in her field. She is the co-author of “Insight – Insides the Minds: Developing a Corporate Culture”, published by Aspatore Books. She has excellent organizational and administrative skills and knows how to manage people and money quite well. She believes in doing things decently and in order and that in these challenging times, it is important for this great organization to maximize its insight and bring greater cohesiveness to the organization. Jannie has a commitment to continue building the IAMWMW on the solid foundation that it was founded. She believes that we must energize our minds and bodies, and bring all of this unused energy together to grow and develop ministers’ wives and ministries’ widows who are new to the ministry. She believes that all voices of the organization should be heard.

For the past eight years she has served as the Convention Coordinator for the IAMWMW, Inc. and is familiar with every aspect of planning an International Convention. In this position she is faced with many challenges and last minute changes, and has demonstrated that she is not afraid of hard work, can successfully manage various personality types, and meet challenges head on. Jannie works closely with hotel/convention site Managers to ensure that all rooms meet specifications and attends to any and all issues that would hinder a smooth spirit-filled conference. She works closely with the International President to ensure that all the mechanics of the convention are appropriate and in place.

She is currently the Vice President of the Northeast Region of the International Association of Ministers’ Wives and Ministers’ Widows, Inc. Some of her contributions in this role:

1. Wrote job descriptions for all elected positions in the Northeast Region
2. Reorganized the state of Massachusetts
3. Chartered and will charter this year, new local organizations in Massachusetts, New York, Pennsylvania, and Virginia
4. Implemented Holy Communion as part of the opening session of the Annual Conference

Jannie Daniels is the immediate past president of the Pennsylvania Association of Ministers’ Wives and Ministers’ Widows, Interdenominational. During her tenure as president, Pennsylvania hosted the 66th Annual Conference in 2006 and she served as Convention Chair. She served as president of her local group where she implemented Biblical instructions at each meeting, created an open forum whereby every sister that had a concern could be heard and express her concerns without embarrassment.

Jannie M. Daniels has a burning desire to serve. Her experience as a local and state president, Regional Vice President, Convention Coordinator, Corporate Executive and respected leader in her church and community qualifies her as an excellent candidate to take up the baton and lead this organization to yet another level of excellence. Jannie’s major campaign theme include “Embracing the Ministers’ Wife and Minister’s Widow, Expanding the Vision and Continuing to Pursue our Destiny”. You can certainly see from the few things noted above that Jannie is well equipped to meet challenges head on. She stands firmly on the promises of God and believes together, not only can we keep the dream and the vision alive, but we ‘MUST’ keep them alive.

It is my sincere hope and prayer that after reviewing some of my qualifications and my service to the organization for the past 24 years, you will determine that I am the one to lead this organization to the next level. Can I count on you and your support?
